What the mark communicates

The emblem represents family across generations, coming together around a shared heart. The four ribbon forms suggest relationship, continuity and belonging without prescribing one family structure. The lower diamond signals what is carried forward to the next generation.

Core usage rules

- Preserve the emblem proportions and center-heart negative space.
- Keep clear space around the logo equal to the top head diameter.
- Full-color mark: light and neutral backgrounds.
- Gold or cream mark: burgundy/dark backgrounds or photography.
- Do not stretch, skew, add shadows or recolor pieces arbitrarily.
- Minimum digital width: full logo 240 px; standalone mark 24 px.
